SGA ELECTION RAPIDLY APPROACHING

Elections for 1949-50 of SGA will be held April 26, Don Dowie, president said.

In accord with the student body constitution each candidate must file a petition with any SGA officer. The petitions must all be in by the evening of April 18.

Each candidate will be given the opportunity to introduce himself and give a few facts and information about himself at the tentatively set date of April 21. There must be three candidates for each office.

Offices Open

The offices that will be open at this election are: the three general offices of SGA president, vice-president and secretary; representatives of the various living quarters—Walnut Street, Sue Lombard, Kamola, Munson, Vetville, Off-Campus men and Off-Campus women. Also at this election a boy or girl will be elected to the honor council. Again the question of whether Kennedy Hall will have a student representation will be voted on. The other two times were not decisive because of insufficient number of votes either pro or con.

The only requirement for one of the SGA offices is 40 hours of college credit and a C average when taking office. Besides this all candidates either representatives or offices must have a petition with 20 names on it. All these petitions need to indicate is that you wish to be a candidate for a particular office and that the 20 individual names are evidences of that fact. Students may sign only one petition for each office and if one student's name is found on two petitions for the same office both names are invalidated.

Urges Participation

"Freshmen are urged to nominate and take active part in the elections as there are no barriers to your participation," said Don Dowie. "And you will be here the longest and will benefit the most from there elections."

MESSIAH TO BE PRESENTED SUNDAY

Annual presentation of Handel's "The Messiah" by a 150-voice choir of Central Washington College of Education students and Kittitas county residents will be given at 8 p.m. next Sunday in the college auditorium.

The traditional Easter concert will feature four soloists, Miss Margaret Scruggs of the college music division will sing the soprano solo. Miss Lois McNight, junior, music student from Ellensburg, will be the featured contralto. Daniel Preston, Seattle, will sing tenor, and Stephen Hobson of C.W.C.E. music division will sing baritone.

Accompaniment for the chorus will be provided by an orchestra under the direction of Herbert A. Bird, assistant professor of music at the college. Consisting of students and townspeople, the orchestra has been rehearsing since the first of the year.

Students who will sing in the chorus are members of the regular college choir. Members from church choirs in Ellensburg and Kittitas county will make up the rest of the 150-voice chorus.

Another Record Made In College Enrollment

Central Washington College's enrollment for spring quarter as of April 8, is 1,245 and is expected to exceed 1,250, according to Edward B. Rogel, registrar.

This is a new high for spring quarter, exceeding the previous high last spring quarter of 1,051, by almost 200.

There has been a 100 student drop from winter quarter's all-time high. Next week complete figures will be released.

Frosh Women's Hours Removed

The Dean of Women's office revealed last week that Freshmen Regulations for third quarter freshmen women have been lifted for Spring Quarter. This means that dormitory closing hours for girls with over 29 academic credits will be extended to 10:15 on week nights.

Freshmen Regulations were initiated by the Dean of Women's office last fall with the approval of the Women's Inter-Dormitory Council. Following the initial two-quarter launching of the program, Mrs. Hitchcock states that her office will turn over management of Freshmen Regulations to the respective hall councils. This is being done in order to encourage and facilitate more complete student government.

This program was designed to encourage good study habits on the part of entering freshmen. It has in no way interfered with extra curricular activities since special permissions were granted to cover these affairs.

"Freshmen Regulations for third quarter freshmen girls are being waived at this time because two quarters are considered adequate to effect the transition from high school into college work," Mrs. Hitchcock said.

ATOMIC ENERGY FILM TO BE SHOWN APRIL 12

Ellis Johnson, educational director of the Central Electric Nuclear project at Hanford, will show a film on atomic energy at 1 p.m., Tuesday, April 12, in the CES auditorium. Russell McArthur, assistant professor of physics, announced this week.

"The film, which runs for one and three quarters hours, is reputed to be one of the finest on the subject. All physical science majors or pre-teachers with strong interest in this field should see the film. Any others interested, including instructors, will be welcome," McArthur said.

The showing is also open to the public with no admission charge.

The Port of New York has a total shoreline of 771 miles in New York and New Jersey, with 2,000 piers, wharves and quays.

HOME ECONOMIC CLUB HELD CONFERENCE AT U.

On March 18-19 several club members attended a Home Economics College Club Conference at the University of Washington. It was a joint conference with the Pacific Northwest Council on Family Relations and Washington State Home Economics Association.

Those members attending were Marie Nelson, Faye Sethe, Esther Rector, Betty Schmuck, Olga Belzer, Miss Adam, and Miss Redmond, State College Club advisor. The main purpose of this conference was to ratify the constitution for the Home Economics College Club.

President In Chicago For Three Education Councils

President Robert E. McConnell is now in Chicago to attend three educational conferences, announced his office.

The first conference is a two day meeting of the executive board of the American Association of Colleges for Higher Education. This conference will take place in the Stevens Hotel in Chicago.

He will attend a three day conference for Higher Education, sponsored by the National Education Association, at the Congress Hotel. There will be 700 delegates there from 300 colleges throughout the United States.

The final conference will be a one day meeting of the executive board for Higher Education of the NEA.

Budget Requests Take Cut From Legislature

Approximately $1,300,000 for operations and salaries have been granted for Central by the State Legislature at the recent session, President Robert E. McConnell said.

The Senate passed an additional $30,000 for salaries, $25,000 for operations, and $165,000 for major repairs to buildings, but these amounts were vetoed by the governor.

Central received no funds for new buildings. But at the autumn general election in 1950 the voters of the state will decide on a $20 million bond issue. If this bond issue is passed the money will be distributed to the five state institutions. The money for the new building will come from that source.

NEW DANCE BAND IDEA SPONSORED BY CAMPUS SWING GROUP

Tomorrow night on the CWCE campus, one of the most talked about social events of the current term, the "Band Blare", will be staged for all dance and music lovers of the college student body. The big dance is scheduled to get under way at 8:30 in the gymnasium. It will be an informal affair with dresses in order for the women and sport coats and slacks for the men.

Last night in the college auditorium, a preview of the dance was presented in the form of a half-hour radio show which was broadcast over the wires of Station KXLE. The center of interest during the program was the CWCE swing band, the CWCEans, who performed before and after, as well as during the broadcast, which was presented from 8:00 to 8:30. This is the organization that will also provide the music for the dance.

Good Progress Has Been Made

General chairmen Jim Smith and George Moergeli report that all committees have made good progress on the dance which is planned to be the most original dance of the year in all respects. This is the first time an event of this type has been sponsored by any CWCE band and a sincere attempt is being made to make it at total success in such a case, also an annual event.

Prices were fixed at 65 cents for singles and $1.00 for couples. Proceeds of the dance will form a band fund from which the organization will be able to provide itself with money for inter-group social activities, outing, or any such purpose.

To lend color to the affair, band members will wear the coat of their uniforms at the dance and the swing band will be in complete uniform.

Committee Heads

Committee heads who have worked so hard in cooperation with one another are: decorations, Myrtle Hatcher and Clinton Rigg; Publicity, Ted Cooley and Verna Jones; Refreshments, Betty Portwood and Mary Hill; Patrons and patronesses, Bev Rasmusson; Tickets, Leo Schmidt and Pat Powers.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Ludtke, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Dr. and Mrs. Wilmet, Dr. and Mrs. Saale, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson. Guests invited to the affair include: Mrs. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Fiske, Dr. and Mrs. Hertz, Mr. and Mrs. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Bird, Miss Scruggs, Mr. Spector, Mr. and Mrs. Moe, Miss Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Christianson, and Dr. and Mrs. Newschwander.

FAREWELL MRS. WADE

We bid farewell to Mrs. Cordelia W. Wade, one of the favorite housemothers on the campus. She has been here since the winter term of 1947.

In the last session of the state legislature, a retirement bill for housemothers was passed which reduced the present age limit. Mrs. Wade is forced to retire under this new law.

As to her future plans, she says she hasn't any as yet, because she was only notified last Monday when she returned from spring vacation that her retirement would be effective April first. Due to lack of advanced notice, the administration hasn't had time to find a new replacement for Montgomery Hall as yet.

Mrs. Wade has been housemother at various dorms throughout the campus. She spent four quarters at Alford; two quarters at Kamola; the summer of 1948 at Sue Lombard and the last two quarters at Montgomery.

Until she has made some definite plans as to her future she will spend a vacation in Illinois, her former home.

Mrs. Wade said before leaving, "I have a fine bunch of boys here and have made a lot of friends among the college students."

Veterans Administration Advises On Certificates

Veterans planning to resume interrupted GI Bill education and training should await receipt of a supplemental certificate of eligibility before going back to classes, Veterans Administration advised.

VA said that recently a large number of veterans have been accepted for courses by educational institutions before they have received their supplemental certificates of eligibility from VA.

Veterans are urged to wait until they are sure their certificates have been approved before actually entering training, unless they can afford to defray the costs of tuition and expenses themselves.

Until the certificates are issued,

NEW ORCHESTRA OPENS AT STOMP

Although the CWCEans, popular college swing band, have been presented at three student functions already this year, tomorrow night will mark the band's debut as a dance orchestra. This big 17 piece group has been rehearsing for a number of weeks and has added much variety to its dance library for a well-balanced dance program.

A guitar and another trombone have been added to the original 15-piece outfit that performed for the Rotary Minstrel show, stunt night, and the homecoming radio show, and in addition, was presented as a special feature at all the assembly programs on the winter tour of the concert band.

The idea of organizing a large dance band for just such special purposes as well as for the fun of rehearsing large arrangements was brought to the CWC campus by Bert Christianson, band director last year. Each year some of the more active dance musicians who are enrolled in the concert band will receive the opportunity to play with the organization.

Featured vocal soloists on the program will be Maxine Houston, popular Kennedy Hall lass from Olympia, and Bill Gleason, well-known tenor from Ellensburg, who also gives a very creditable performance on the trombone.

The 17 youthful musicians who will combine their talents tomorrow to make forth with some beautiful music are: saxes, Harold Jeans, Waldo (Guz) King, Harry Cameron, Ted Cooley, and Dick McKnight; trombones: Bill Gleason, Vern Harkness, Tom Miller, and Doug Locker; trumpets: Fred Schnurr, Wilder Jones, Bill Simonis, and Bill Wight; piano: Ralph Smith; bass: Tom Wiegert; drums: Marold Malcolm, and guitar, Ray Cain.

Civil Service Exams Are Available For Teachers

Applications for the Teacher and Teacher-Advisor examination are to be sent to the civil service regional office having jurisdiction over the area in which the applicant wishes to work.

(These areas and the addresses of the regional offices are given in the announcement.) Applications will be accepted until further notice; however, persons who wish to receive early consideration should have their applications on file not later than April 26, 1949.

VA assumes no financial obligation for the payment of tuition and other expenses.

Collection is strictly at matter between the school and the veteran, VA said.

POAGE TAKES CRIER ASSOCIATE EDITOR FOR SPRING QUARTER

Doug Poage, Junior from South Bend, Wash., was appointed associate editor of the Campus Crier for Spring quarter, replacing Art Belcher who transferred to Pacific University at Forest Grove, Oregon, to further his studies in journalism.

This is Poage's second year with the Crier, having worked as feature writer and news reporter all last year and as music writer last quarter. He inaugurated the music column "Music Notes" last quarter, as well as covered all musical events at the college.

Upon completion of his high school work he served with the U. S. Army. After his separation from the service he came to Central and entered the pre-journalism curriculum. Completing all of the courses offered in this field, rather than transfer to another college, he changed his major to social science.

Active in many extra-curricular activities include the presidency of the Episcopal Canterbury Club, an chairman of last quarter's Colonial ball.

While in high school he was sports editor of the paper, The Chieftan. He also was a photographer for the school's annual yearbook, the Car-cowan.

Advanced to the position of Editor in Chief is Dick Norman, sophomore from Kirkland, last quarter's news editor. Bob Slingland, sophomore from Bremerton, rotated to the position of sports editor in accordance with the editorship policy inaugurated last year.

College Orch Airs Preview To 'Band Blare'

By Ted Cooley

As a preview to the big dance, the "Band Blare", which will be held tomorrow night, the CWCeans, popular 17 piece swing band which is fast becoming the pride of the campus, presented a one-half hour radio broadcast-concert last evening in the college auditorium.

The actual broadcast was from 8:00 to 8:30 but the band performer awhile before and after the show for the listening pleasure of the auditorium audience.

Among the numbers presented on the program were: "Three Deuces", a jumpy instrumental tune, "Blue Skies", a top-notch melody with an even better arrangement by Bert Christianson that has gained the highest interest and respect by all who have heard it in the past,

MANY ATTEND RECENT APRIL FOOL'S DANCE

As much fun as a good joke was the Sigma Tau Alpha sponsored April Fool's Dance held last Friday, April 1 in the new gym.

The theme of the day was carried out in the decorations, tickets, and intermission features. Pictures of the traditional conceptions of fools and jesters varied with like drawings of foolscaps, poodles etc. around the three walls. Unique in dances so far this year was the columned paper strips, with chalked figures tumbling down them, cutting off the far end of the floor, as well as adding a different decorative touch.

The intermission entertainment was directed by master of ceremonies, Bob Slingland, with a complete repertoire of "April Foolish" jokes. A comedy song and dance routine by a new entertainment team "Eckroat and Dreher" was accepted with enthusiastic applause by the onlookers.

Drawing for the doorprize began with Carol Tandy carrying off the box of candy as the winning ticket holder. Two tickets selections finally found a loser for the booby door prize in the person of Wally Whitworth. After numerous unwrappings in front of the microphone he found himself the happy owner of a gadget of studied uselessness.

Punch and cookies, punctuated by the new fad of popping upside down paper cups on the floor, ended the intermission.

Dancing continued til 11:30 to more smooth Combo music.

"Nervous Nocturne," a rich, strictly sax number which was composed and arranged by Cliff Olson, friend of Mr. Christianson's who is with Earl Carrol's theatre-restaurant in Los Angeles, "A Fella With an Umbrella," popular tune which Maxine Houston rendered very nicely vocally, "More Than You Know," another top tune which Bill Gleason dressed up, with a very sentimental vocal and trombone solo, and "Eager Beaver," a melody tremendously popularized by Stan Kenton's orchestra and which received just treatment last night.

Acting as master of ceremonies during the radio show was Bob Slingland, who has appeared as MC of several other college functions this year.

Mother's Day Plans Launched By AWS

Plans for Mother's Day were launched at the first meeting of the A.W.S. Council for the spring quarter. Eleta Adolf and Rose Milhofer were chosen to serve as co-chairmen of general arrangements. Other committees will be announced later.

Mother's Day is an annual tradition sponsored by the Associated Women Students. It is always held on the Saturday preceding the national Mother's Day, which is on May 8 this year. Mothers of both men and women students are invited to this event, which is one of the biggest campus activities. All students are urged to sign the sheets on the dormitory bulletin boards and thus supply the invitation committee with names and addresses of their mothers. Off campus students will find these sheets in the student walk-way.

High School Teachers To Be Trained At Central

Central Washington college has been authorized to begin training of the secondary school teachers, President Robert E. McConnell announced recently.

House Bill 67, which was passed by the state legislature and signed by the governor, gives all five institutions of higher learning power to train for both the secondary and elementary fields. Before only the state college and the university could train secondary teachers.

Under the new law, Central is also enabled to grant the masters of education degree in all phases of teacher education.

The four programs now offered at C.W.C.E. are: (1) elementary, (2) junior high, (3) secondary, and (4) graduate program for master degree.

In the five year graduate program the training will be for: principals, superintendents, correctors of visual education and curriculum specialist.

Willamette Nine Arrives Friday For First Of Three Games

A strong Willamette U baseball nine will arrive in Ellensburg tomorrow to tangle with Coach Arnie Faust's swatters for the first of three games to be played Friday and Saturday.

Advance publicity on the southern club is meager, but Coach John Lewis has had good weather for a month and has already seen his charges whip Oregon College of Education twice and taste defeat twice at the hands of the strong University of Oregon squad. The final Oregon game saw the Ducks come from behind in the closing innings to cop a desperate 5-4 decision.

The only material about the group arriving tomorrow is about Willamette coach John Lewis, who has been quite a ball player in his hey day. Lewis graduated from the University of Oregon, where he played ball and later went to the Yakima club of the Western International league. He was a pitcher.

At the writing of this article it was not known whether or not two of the three games to be played would be night affairs or not. If they are night affairs, the Cats will get their first taste of baseball under the lights at the new City park.

Bob McCullough To Coach Junior Legion Baseball

Bob McCullough, Central Washington College football and baseball star, will coach the Ellensburg Junior Legion baseball team this year, Commander Ralph Rude of Austin-Rees-Wheeler post of the American Legion, team sponsor, announced today.

Plans for Junior Legion baseball this year—it will be the third season the local Legion post has sponsored the activity—were made yesterday at a meeting of Legion representatives in Toppenish called by Ray Alvarez, Sixth district baseball chairman. Tommy Tomerlin, athletic officer of Austin-Rees-Wheeler post, and Russell Ambros, Sixth district Americanism chairman, represented the Ellensburg post.

Various interpretations of the rules were discussed and schedules for the northern and southern divisions of the district were drawn up. It was necessary to create two divisions because of the increase in the number of posts expected to sponsor teams this year. Cle Elum, Ellensburg, Yakima, Wapato, and Naches and possibly Selah or Tieton will play in the northern division. Toppenish, Prosser, Pasco, Richland and Sunnyside and possibly Walla Walla

COLLEGE ENTRY WINS 'Y' PLAY-FOR-FUN CASABA TOURNAMENT

Strengthened by the addition of several CWC varsity hoopsters, the Central Washington College aggregation of Ellensburg won the 1949 Play-for-fun basketball tournament with a resounding 59-30 triumph over Thorp in the Yakima Y.M.C.A. during spring vacation.

The game pitted two well-known Central hoopsters against each other, Hal Jones starting forward for the Evergreen champs and a member of the college squad, and Jack Graham of the Wildcat varsity. Scoring honors were divided evenly between the two boys as each rimmed the hoop for 17 points. Also, on the potent college squad were Chuck Long, Larry Downen, and Milt Dallman all of Central varsity. Thorp featured the same aggregation that took part in the recent commercial league tussle.

Thorp put up a scrap in the first half, tying the count at 19-all and trailing only 26-21 at halftime. The C.W.C. cagers clicked on all five in the third period to roll up 19 points while holding Thorp scoreless.

Wilbur Chinn, captain of the winning team accepted the handsome trophy which goes each year to the top team of the tournament in this annual play-for-fun event.

48-9 CONFERENCE CASABA TEAM PICKS THREE CATS

The 1948-49 Evergreen basketball season officially ended with the selecting of an all-conference team of basketball potentiality. Selections were made by the eight conference coaches on an all-opponent basis. First team votes rated 2 points and second team choices getting one.

Dean Nicholson, ace Central guard and "Hi" Harry McLaughlin, P.L.C. forward drew first string honors for the third consecutive year. Each acquired 13 of the possible points. Dick Luft, Eastern's fine defensive forward and Bobby Angeline, CPS hot-shot guard, nailed down two other top berths while Dean Dion, St. Martin's center, who captured the league individual scoring crown rounded out the first Evergreen all-conference basketball team. Dion and Luft received 11 points apiece followed closely by Angeline with 10.

Second team honors went to Wes Saxton PLC and Chuck Long CWC forwards, Rod Gibbs CPS center, Gene Lundgard PLC and Fred Peterson CWC guards. U. of B. C., Whitworth, and Western failed to place anyone on the first two teams. Lundgard and Peterson each drew four first team votes with Gibbs, Long, and Saxton presented with 2 each.

Absent from the roll call of honor were Jerry Starr of Western, and Earl Mortlock of Whitworth, however both made honorable mention along with Stan Peterson, Dick Ravenhorst, W.W.C., Dick Brown, Bill Stivers, and Bob Fincham CPS, Don Cameron, Gordy Brandt, Whitworth, John Forsyth U. Mrs. Jones was spending a day in bed with a severe cough and her husband was working in the back yard, hammering nails into some boards. Presently a neighbor came over to the yard.

"How's the wife?" he asked.
"Not very well," said Jones.
"Is that her coughin'?"
"No," replied Jones, "It's going to be a chicken house!"

THE PRESS BOX

It's the crack of hickory on horsehide and the crunch of cinders underfoot now throughout the U. S., as basketball becomes just something to remember. Central's fine basketball showing this year in the new Evergreen Conference brought praise to the team, coach and entire student body. When the chips were down the team came through to become Champs of the league. A tip of the hat to you all.

Still on basketball—Dean Nicholson, Central's deadeye guard teamed with Harry McLaughlin for his third consecutive all-conference first team honors. Chuck Long, standout center, and Fred Peterson, speedy guard, both earned second team posts. Indeed our opponents respected the champs ball playing.

Winners of fourth place in the National Junior College Basketball Tourney, Olympic J. C. Rangers of Bremerton, returned to the "Navy Yard City" and were welcomed with the biggest homecoming festivities in the city's history. Units of the fleet met the ferry in mid-channel and escorted the ferry to the pier. The Rangers, winners of the state title, placed three men on the state all star team. Ted Tappe, terrific high scoring center, Sid Ryen, big tip-in man, and Darwin Gilchrist, diminutive guard.

Another B high school track meet will be held this year with the track coaching class officiating. Teams competing will be Thorp, Cle Elum and Kittitas.

Central cindermen are already pointing for the Conference meet in Spokane and the Olympia relays in Olympia. The Wildcats are defending title holders for the Olympia go.

Joe Louis, retired heavyweight champ, has turned promoter. Louis will try to become another Mike Jacobs by promoting an Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott bout in June. Winner will take Joe's crown.

Baseball hit Tomlinson field last week as Coach Arne Faust tried out various infield and outfield combinations for the Wildcat nine. Lettermen returned at every position. Fans will be really surprised to see shortstop Ralph Sherwood behind the plate giving the signals.

Game Results Tuesday

Opening the season with two practice tilts Tuesday against the Yakima JC nine, the Central Washington Wildcats split the series, winning the first game 25-13 and losing the second 5-4.

Highlights of the first game were a home run inside the park by Billy Lee, Cat hurler and a long hit that went through the fence for a double by Ralph Sherwood.

In the second contest Don Lannoye started on the hill and faced nine men and struck out eight. Going into the final can to the Cats were down 5-2, but managed to draw up within one run of the lower valley nine before the final putout.

14 Lettermen To Bolster Stronger Wildcat Squad

Hickory and horsehide are once again in the sport's spotlight. The initial varsity turnout, on Monday, March 28, found a host of lettermen and new prospects gathering on Tomlinson field to display their skills and point for a much-coveted varsity position.

Fourteen lettermen are returning from last year's squad: Don Miller, Ralph Sherwood, and Don Spencer—catchers; Don Lannoye, Bill Lee, Don Whitener, and Warren Wilson, pitchers; Jim Satterlee—first base; Harvey Wood—second base; Jim Clemens—shortstop; Dale Krueger—third base; Bob McCullough, Dean Nicholson, and Wayne Wright—outfielders.

There is a good deal of impressive new material on the Sweeney diamond: Doug Locker, catcher, a two-year letterman from Lake Washington; "Panther" Jack Crook, second baseman, a three-year letterman from Snohomish; Dick Davison, pitcher, a three-year letterman from Toppenish; Bill Hiblar, shortstop, played with the college last season; Danny Iyall, catcher, a three-year letterman from Olympia; Hal Jones, first baseman, from Darrington; Norland King, outfielder, from Cle Elum; Jack Louderback, pitcher, a three-year letterman from Hoquiam.

Gerry Marks, third baseman, a two-year letterman from Franklin (Seattle); Jack Palmalee, second baseman, a two-year letterman from Yakima Junior College; LeRoy Robinson, pitcher, a three-year letterman from Adna; Stan Roseboro, shortstop, a two-year letterman from Walla Walla; Chuck Satterlee, outfielder, played with the college last season; Jim Winkleman, third baseman, a three-year letterman from Olympia; Gordon Abbott, pitcher, a four-year letterman from Issaquah; Gerald Moffat, outfielder, played with last season's junior varsity.

According to Coach Arnie Faust, this year's team will be much stronger than the one fielded last season. "I think that our defense is definitely stronger and the pitching looks better, but the batting will have to pick up if we expect to go any place this season," stated Coach Faust.

This year's junior varsity squad will again be under the coaching of Shelaon Kem.

Additional points in the long distances may be picked up by Milt Towne, Hoquiam freshman, who won the cross country race during Homecoming this year.

Spring Trot Opens Quarter Activities

The spring quarter began in an enthusiastic style Monday night, March 28, in the new gym from 7:30 to 10:30, when the Off-Campus Women presented the "Spring Trot." Music was provided by the popular Combo.

For intermission entertainment, the crowd was treated to several boogie-woogie selections on the piano by Don Hartsell. Cookies and punch were served under the direction of the refreshment chairman, Helen MacDougall.

Decorations were composed of vari-colored streamers in the Spring theme. Helen Carney and Pattie Platts supervised the decorating committee.

Other committees were headed by Melba Alford, entertainment; and Pattie Platts and Helen Carney, publicity.

Pattie Platts, president of the Off-Campus Women, expressed thanks to Miss Brain and Miss S. Davies for serving as patronesses and to Earl Wiuff for acting as master of ceremonies.

Safety Committee Urges Safety First

Safety first was emphasized this week by the safety committee of Alpha Phi Omega, boy scout honorary, and Miss Amanda Hebel, director of student teaching, for students who walk or drive about the campus.

They reminded students and faculty that E street (separating CES and the playfield) is closed to all traffic. At no time between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. are cars to travel on that street. There are yellow signs at the closed ends. License numbers will be taken of cars using this street during school hours.

Another reminder was that there are patrol boys on duty at each cross walk area by CES. Walkers are cautioned to observe the flags. The law requires that drivers of vehicles stop at crosswalks when they are occupied.

The safety committee stressed that there have been no accidents thus far with a plea to keep it that way.

generosity of the administration and will continue only as long as students have interest in it and participate in it. Thus, it is imperative for everyone to participate and vote.

Record Turnout

In last year's student election, Central had the biggest turnout of any college or university on the coast, 42 colleges and universities to be exact. "This is a great record," explained Dowie, "let's keep up this record."

Each representative from the various dorms must file a petition and will be voted on in the dorm which he or she represents. If there are not three candidates for each office the interclub council will nominate them.

For the office of honor council the boy or girl must have 104 hours of college credit and have a C average when taking office. For duties refer to the student hand book, Straight Dope.

Duties of Officials

The duties of the three general SGA offices are: president—he presides over all meetings and is chairman of council, appoints all student members of committees, handles the financial end; vice-president—in charge of all social events and activities, president of inter club council; secretary—keeps a written record of all meetings and handles the correspondence representatives—direct representatives to the SGA from the living groups and has other duties assigned to him by the president.

If you are unable to contact a SGA member personally drop your petition in Dowie's box, number 32. Also, if you wish to know the machinery or more information about the coming election stop any SGA member and they will be glad to give you any information which you may desire if they can, Dowie asserted.

As a final word of advice, Dowie urged all candidates to know the SGA constitution and by-laws.

All those interested in running for an SGA office are reminded to have their petitions in by next Monday, April 18.

PHILISOPHICAL VIEW GIVEN BY PROF. STEVIE

By MURIAL WHITE

In reflecting on the beauty of Spring, the general feeling is, "Ain't it grand!" But to look into the background of this relatively simple statement, one must deliberate on the why's and wherefores of the season.

In order to divert from presenting a one-sided picture, I recently entered into a discussion of Spring with Mr. Stephens, popular psychology professor. During our discussion, we hit upon several points that are very worthy of mention.

We have just come through what we reflect on as a long and tedious winter. It seems too good for words to at last feel the sun on our backs and the cool, green grass beneath our feet. Spring is here because Nature intended it to come, but it would not be appreciated half as much if we did not have a few days of 32 below zero weather for contrast.

Spring is a tradition. Love in bloom and the birds and bees symbolize Spring. From the words of our grandparents, we have drawn the biological and mental stimulus that prompts the urges we feel. We, the modern generation, take a simpler viewpoint because we feel that Spring wouldn't be Spring without the budding of young love. We at Sweezy look forward to trips to Vantage. Speaking of Vantage, did you know the sand comes up from the river, not down from the hills? This is one of the many points that

Intercollegiate Knights Elect Don Lowe As Head

The Claw Chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights held their annual election of officers. Retiring Duke Jim Paulson handed the gavel over to Don Lowe, the newly elected Duke. Lowe is a sophomore from Elma, Wash.

Other officers elected include: Dioncio Tobia, Scribe; Bill Ranniger, Chancellor of Exchequer; Don Erickson, Historian; John Clark, Jester; Harry Bush, Expansion Representative; and Jack Blaine, Guard.

These officers will assist Mr. Sogge, I.K. advisor, in guiding the service organization through the coming year.

In the early days of the telephone, the instruments were often leased in pairs, permitting two stations to talk to each other but to no one else.

suddenly confront us as we become aware of the beauties and wonders of Mother Nature.

All of Mother Nature's works are here now to be enjoyed. We are the lucky humans who have the ability to not only derive enjoyment from the glories of Spring, but we can express our enjoyment in phrases kept in cold-storage during the past six months.

Spring to many of us is like the sight of a thick, juicy beefsteak to a hungry bum. Our appetites were whetted for the sight of green leaves, blooming flowers, ice cream cones, girls in bathing suits and the beach at Vantage. At last Spring has sprung - ah, the wonder of it all!

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HOLD SOCIAL PARTY

The C.W.C.E. Alumni association had a social evening Saturday at the old gym. Entertainment included square dancing; a "buzz" session, in which Alumni members talked about people, places and events in old annuals they had brought; and a door prize. Two matters of business were discussed.

Calls for the square dance were given by Mrs. Pat Casey Miller and Robert McConnell had been invited to give the calls, but he had been called away on official business in Chicago. The door prize was a large box of Elizabeth's hand dipped chocolates, made by the well known Ellensburg confectioner.

During the business transactions, bylaws were presented for adoption by the bylaw committee and plans for a summer and fall meeting were discussed. Cecil Lamzerth is chairman of the bylaws committee.

Official hostesses for the evening were Bill Ranniger, who is president of the organization, Mrs. Richard Peterson, Mrs. Emil George, Mrs. Phil George and Mrs. Ben George. These last three women were also in charge of the refreshments.

Mrs. Pat Casey Miller, publicity chairman for the organization, took care of the publicity, and Lois Herbst, membership chairman, was in charge of special invitations. The door prize and tickets were in charge of Mrs. Ruth Woods and Mrs. Richard Peterson.

Art Competition Slated For High School Artists

High school artists from all parts of the state are expected to participate in the fourth annual art competition and festival sponsored by the Central Washington College department of art April 30. Reino Randall, associate professor of art, announced this week.

Only high school seniors are eligible for tuition scholarships. They must enter matted work for the exhibit and submit a portfolio with a cross section of their art work.

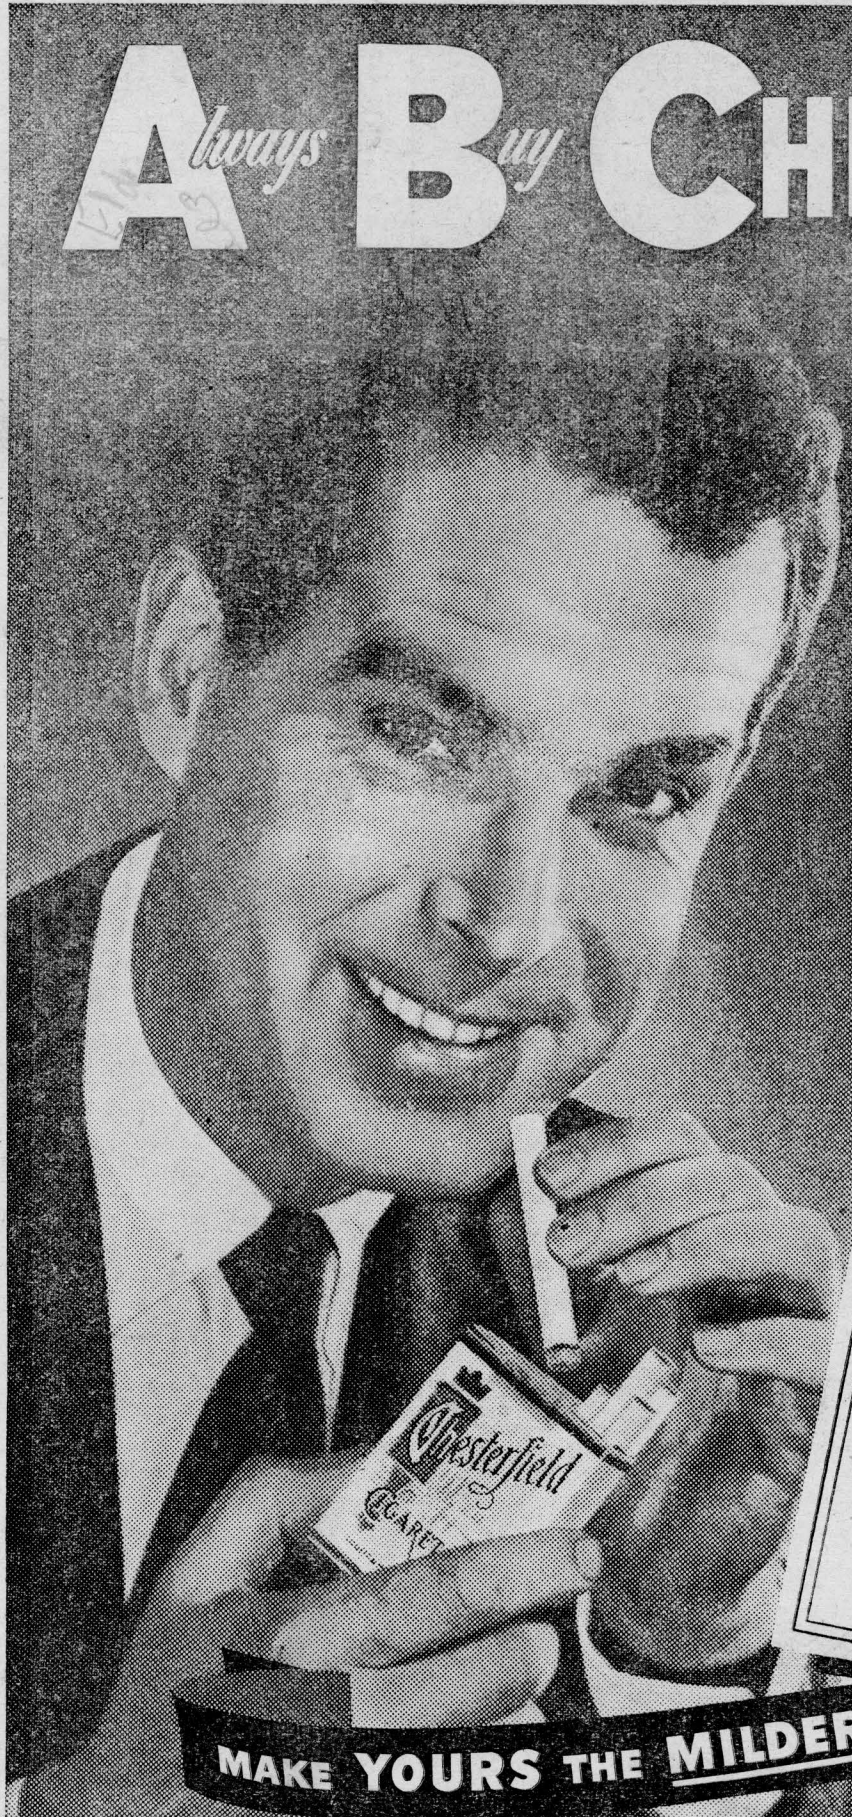

Any high school student may submit individual pieces to the exhibit for cash prizes or awards. Entries may include paintings, drawings, photographs, modeling or any other media. They are to be sent to the college art department and post marked not later than April 26. A fifty cent fee is required by each entrant, regardless of the number of pieces submitted.

Four one-quarter room scholarships at C.W.C.E. will be offered as prizes for winning seniors. Cash awards to cover college fees will also be available to competitors. For high school students who are not seniors, various cash prizes will be offered.

First held in 1946, the high school art festival at Central Washington College has become an annual event. The first festival drew 158 entries, 245 in 1947, and 334 in 1948. Last year approximately 1,200 students and parents were present on the campus to see the art exhibits.
